HELIOS:FEMINA

Character Profiles

We are on hiatus!
Chapter 11 will release on June 5, 2016.

Place of Birth: Switzerland

Age: 23

Residence: Ministry of Sound

Occupation: Musician and entertainer

Hobbies: Music, dancing, designing, composing, photography, and fencing

Relatives: Cornelius

Ash Cornelius is a world famous musician. He is of Cornelius lineage, the wealthiest family in the world.

At a very young age, Ash developed extraordinary musical capabilities, showing an affinity for all instruments as well as the ability to sing and compose. In 2038, he founded the White Ravens, a division of Axis Mundi that regulates the arts and entertainment districts.

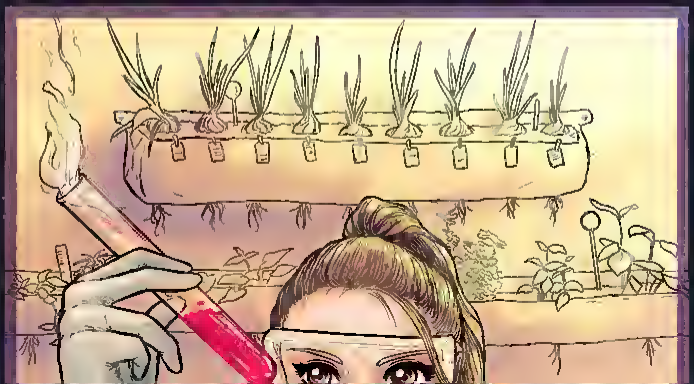
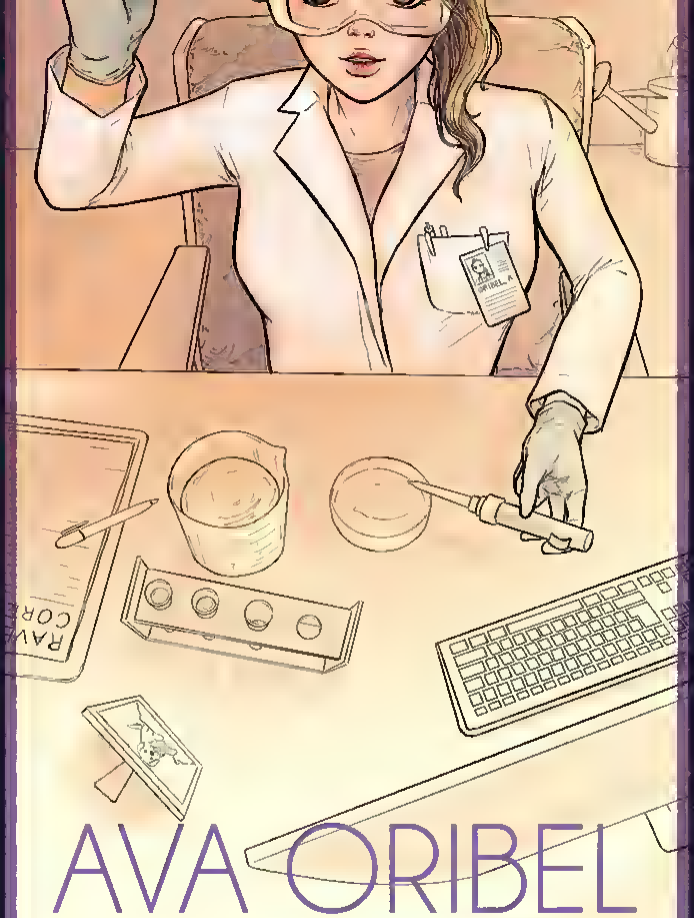
Fun fact: Ash believes the human voice is the most superior instrument, due to its impressive range and style. His next favored instruments are both the violin and cello, often comparing their sounds to human vocals. Piano is his third favorite, having mastered it at the age of 7, however when he's playing leisurely, he favors the guitar.





AVA ORIBEL

Place of Birth: Canada

Age: 50

Residence: Unknown

Occupation: Former biomechanics engineer and material scientist at Raven Core Research Labs

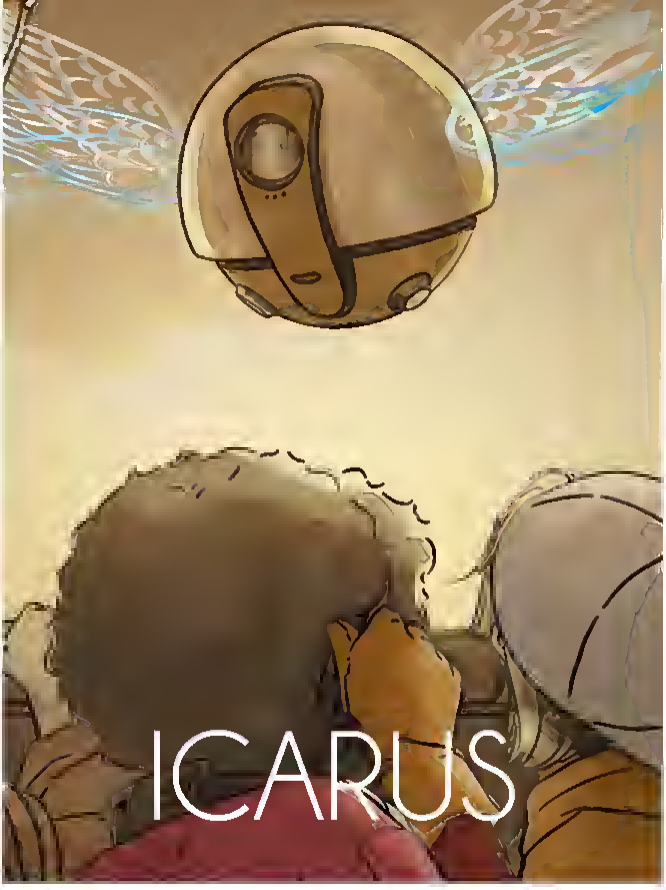
Expertise: Biology, genetics, cybernetics, nanotechnology

Hobbies: Horticulture, botany

Ava Oribel was a biomechanics scientist at Raven Core Research Labs. Her extensive work in material sciences focused on advanced biological integrations of nanotechnology, which later became the foundation of Axis Mundi's EyeD system and the Raven Core Advanced Robotics Rapid Cellular Regeneration program.

In 2018, Ava opted for early retirement and moved to San Francisco.

Fun fact: After parting ways with Raven Core Research Labs, Ava built a successful business creating sustainable ecosystems for homes and businesses that allowed full independence from the energy grid. .



ICARUS

Manufacturer: Hive Systems

Model: Scout

Power: Solar Skin high efficiency solar inductor / MagnaVault 2500 Series magnetic inductor

Antigravity Generator: Omnidirectional Sphere

In 2021, Hive Systems developed a behavioral learning system that utilized an experimental Heartificial Intelligence core. Originally installed in a Scout class probe codenamed "Icarus", the system also featured Omnipresence synchronization that allowed system integration across multiple devices.

Immediately following the acquisition of Hive Systems by Raven Core Advanced Robotics in 2025, the Heartificial Intelligence program was scrapped, due to unpredictability in military applications.

Fun fact: While rummaging through a decommissioned Hive Systems research lab in Palo Alto, Flo and Bailey discover and reactivate the Icarus prototype probe. Flo has since then synchronized Icarus to Rhea's hoverbike.
